

Taking Custom Measurements for Wrist Guards

First, with fingers closed, determine the distance or span across the knuckles. Take this measurement from outside the index finger's knuckle to outside the pinky finger's knuckle.

Then, determine the circumference completely around the wrist. Take this measurement at a point below the hand where the wrist bends.

